Year in review: Plane crash among top stories

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Staff Writer

Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally predicted in January 1990 there would be a lot of changes in the city during the year.

That prediction came true. The following events took place in the city in 1990:

January

• Michigan State police began to search for a suspect who was believed to be responsible for the rapes and slayings of 10 area women.

• City officials began expressing concerns about an environmental impact study drafted for the Metro Airport. The study centered on a series of expansion plans proposed for the airport.

• State officials announced the city would receive a $192,000 Michigan Recreational Bond Grant.

February

• A 46-year-old Wayne resident was charged with robbing $8,000 from a Romulus credit union. James Joseph Knoff Jr. was arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Virginia Morgan Feb. 9.

• A 17-year-old Romulus teen-ager was bound over to Circuit Court and charged with sexual assault of a 15-month-old girl. Marcal Mario Dixon appeared before 34th District Court Judge Henry Zaborowski for a preliminary exam. He was charged with first-degree criminal sexual conduct.

• Alternative funding ideas were discussed for the controversial Ecorse Creek drainage proposal.

• A 20-year-old Flat Rock man was arrested after allegedly attempting to run down a 61-year-old Romulus man with a car. David Alexander was charged with assault with an automobile Jan. 30.

March

• A senior citizen housing project proposed for Wayne Road at Goddard received conditional approval from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

• The Urban Bible Institute makes a home in Romulus at Beverly Road.

• Residents found their homes invaded by flood waters. Flood waters reached the 7-foot mark at Wayne Road and Interstate-94.

• City officials announced a lawsuit against Wayne County for allegedly releasing airport flood water into city drainage and sewage systems. The lawsuit included three counts against the city: nuisance, trespassing and breach of contract.

• Milatz Lawn and Leisure closed after 70 years.

• A policy outline was approved for the Romulus Adolescent Health Center.

• Trial proceedings began for two men charged with splashing a Taylor woman with gasoline. The men were Brownstown residents James Camilli, 39, and Vester Lee Mills, 24.

April

• James Camilli and Vester Lee Mills were found guilty of

A collision Dec. 3 of two Northwest Airlines passenger planes on a Metropolitan Airport runway was the top story of the year in 1990. The collision, during takeoff by both planes, left eight people dead and 21 injured. Shown assault with intent to murder and sentenced to life in prison. The men were charged with setting 19-year-old Kristen Grauman on fire.

• Gov. James Blanchard signed a state environmental bill in Romulus. The cleanup of a hazardous waste dump near Wick Elementary School was among the projects to be funded.

May

• Reminders went out to return U.S. Census forms. Romulus had a 71 percent overall rate of return.

• Romulus School Superintendent William Bedell announces the district will go out-of-formula July 1, 1990.

• A 26-year-old Romulus man was charged with second-degree murder in the death of his infant son. Michael Anthony May was arraigned before 34th District Court Judge Henry Zaborowski.

Wayne resident dies in local car crash

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Staff Writer

A 15-year-old male Wayne resident died Dec. 23 as a passenger in a fatal car crash in Romulus on Van Born west of Middlebelt.

The driver of the vehicle, a 17-year-old male Wayne resident in serious condition at Annapolis, was speeding too fast on icy roads around 12:40 p.m., according to Romulus Sgt. Joseph Wedesky.

"The vehicle was travelling in and out of traffic," Wedesky said. "The driver lost control and spun 360 degrees and slid from west bound to east bound traffic. The passenger was killed instantly when an on-coming vehicle struck the broadside of the car."

Wedesky said the car spun to the left after it was hit and was struck head on by another car. All individuals involved in the crash were sent to Annapolis Hospital.

The incident is under investigation with a possible charge of negligent homicide being considered, according to Wedesky.

Councilmembers OK sidewalk agreement

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Staff Writer

Romulus councilmembers gave their nod of support to establish a sidewalk agreement Dec. 18, targeting new commercial and industrial developers looking to make a home in the city.

The goal of the agreement is to make developers and residents aware that sidewalks are required in the city. A recent sidewalk ordinance was approved by councilmembers earlier this year, according to David Paul, director of building, safety and engineering.

"Basically, the sidewalk agreement is to make the developers aware they may have to put the sidewalks in," Paul said. "The expense of the installation will be the responsibility of the developer."

This is the first time the city has established such an agreement, according to Paul.

The agreement states the property owner agrees to install sidewalks as required by a site plan approved by councilmembers.

The agreement leaves a door open for the property owner who can't install the sidewalk at the designated time. If this is the case, the owner would petition the city to defer the requirement to a later date, according to the agreement.

The expense of the installation will be the responsibility of the developer.

Karen Richard

Top teacher is nominated

Barth Elementary School may soon have another top teacher by 1991.

Principal Harold Connon has nominated first-grade teacher Karen Richard for the 1990 Romulus School District "Teacher of the Year" award.

The title was previously won in 1976 by Richard's co-worker, Rose Raspberry, who is the daughter of Romulus Councilman Jimmie Raspberry.

"Karen is in her 25th year of teaching," Connon said. "She has a bachelor of science degree from Andrews University and a master's degree from Eastern Michigan University."

Richard has a real love of children and takes the time to make sure each student gets extra attention, according to Connon. She has 34 students in her first-grade class.

"She believes kids should be happy," Connon said. "She is constantly involved with helping the children individually. She even takes two or three to lunch with her every day to give them extra attention."

Nominating a teacher is a long process, according to Connon. The first nomination goes to the district. District officials pick three nominations, which are then sent to Wayne County School officials.

"The county narrows the list down to one name which will go to the state in September," Connon said.

Raspberry won the state title in 1976. She now has a partner, Pat Hebert, assisting her kindergarten class of 50 students.

"We've been working with the kids on phonics skills," Raspberry said. "I enjoy working with Pat. It's like a team effort."

Officials donate time, effort

A real Santa production line was in the works at the Romulus Fire Department Dec. 20.

Officials from the fire, police and ordinance departments as well as representatives from the Goodfellows and residents volunteered numerous hours to help wrap, bag and label Christmas packages for needy families in the community.

Many residents, local schools and Annapolis Hospital officials donated the food and toys, according to Romulus police officer John Smagner, who was the coordinator for the event.

"We started in October getting ready for the Goodfellows paper sale," Smagner said. "We raised $7,500 from the sale. The money raised was used to help the needy."

were on Santa's wish list. Each present was labeled for the age and sex of the child. Volunteers carefully bagged the presents placing destination address stickers.

Smagner said the Department of Social Services on Van Born gave a helping hand by dressing the baby dolls.

More than 1,500 canned goods were boxed with various other Christmas goodies including macaroni, jello and crackers.

"We picked up 500 cans from the high school," Smagner said. "Another 1,000 has to be picked up from Cory Elementary School. When the boxes are completed, they will provide about 30 meals for each family."

Cory Elementary School students received an appreciation certificate from school officials, and a party was staged Dec. 21 to thank all the students and staff for their efforts.

Cory Principal Phyllis Adkins said the food drive helped the students learn about the reason for the season.

Romulus residents who were interested in obtaining a gift from Santa filled out an application earlier in the year to become eligible for the food and toys. The program has been a success for more than a decade.

If the council decides the sidewalks must be installed in the interest of public safety, the owner will have to put in the sidewalks within 120 days after a notice is given. If the property owner fails to install the sidewalk, the city will assess the cost to the owner and install the sidewalk, according to the agreement.

On Dec. 26, councilmembers will decide on a sidewalk agreement with AJF Warehouse Distributors Inc. AJF officials recently constructed a new commercial building at 27849 Wick Road.

Sidewalks have been only installed on the west side of the building.

"They will not be installing a sidewalk to the east at this time," Paul said. "Under the guidelines of the Romulus Sidewalk Ordinance, approval of the contract must be granted by the Romulus City Council."

Sumpter officer turns 'bobby'

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

Television cameras rolled and radio broadcasts hit the airwaves when Sumpter Township officer Howard Frye made history in Derbyshire, England.

Frye was turned into an instant celebrity when he became the first honorary constable of the 1,800-member Derbyshire Constabulary. The chief constable presented Frye with a British bobby's helmet, tunic and trouser and a souvenir truncheon (billy club) to bring home to Sumpter Police Chief Clinton Brown.

"During my first visit to England to visit my wife's family, I brought some police patches to the local police station," Frye said. "I met off-duty Constable Ian Loomes, who is a community liaison officer, and he took me on a tour. We became friends and we've kept in touch ever since. On my second visit, the local constabulary made me an honorary member - the first time in history."

In turn, Frye presented a Sumpter Township police uniform and identity card to his British counterpart, Ian Loomes, who plans to visit the United States next year. Frye also presented Loomes with a certificate of appreciation, signed by Brown, for the British constable's "outstanding contribution in uniting and promoting a kindred fellowship between law enforcement members universally."

"After I was made an honorary constable, I was interviewed on the radio and television. When I attended a fundraiser for children's (protective) services, the posters for the event read, 'Watch out for the real-life American cop,'" Frye said. "Kids came up to me and said, 'I saw you on television. Sometimes, the kids were a bit afraid of me because ish constable's "outstanding contribution in uniting and promoting a kindred fellowship between law enforcement members universally."

Despite some differences, police work is the same in both countries, the Sumpter Township said. Unfortunately, drugs and gang violence plague the jurisdiction of both departments, he said.

"The big difference is that we are armed, and the British constables aren't, but that is changing. Even though there is strict gun control, there are a growing number of crimes with handguns. They believe that in another 10 years, British constables will also carry weapons," Frye said. "Now, the constables are only armed when they are responding to calls where shots have been fired.

They have a large force and they rely on their numbers, rather than their weapons."

Frye's British counterparts participate in school anti-drug education classes, similar to our Drug Awareness Resistance Education program, and they have an emergency telephone service number - 9-9-9, rather than 9-1-1.

Former treasurer for Romulus dies

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

John Lewkowicz could be stubborn.

When the former Wayne County drain commissioner Charles Youngblood imposed an administrative fee on work on drains taxpayers were already paying for, Lewkowicz felt the fees were illegal.

As the then-city treasurer of Romulus, he initiated a lawsuit that ultimately reached the Supreme Court of Michigan, and was eventually decided in favor of Lewkowicz and a score of local and area municipalities which had joined together in the suit.

The communities were reimbursed thousands of dollars from the county because of Lewkowicz's efforts.

Lewkowicz, 73, died Wednesday afternoon while his family was at his side in Annapolis Hospital.

"Mr. Lewkowicz was one of the most honest public officials I have had the privilege to have worked with and known," said Romulus councilmember Jimmie Raspberry, who was an acquaintance and later close friend of Mr. Lewkowicz's for more than 40 years. "This city and area have lost a dedicated public official."

Lewkowicz's long career as a public servant and political career spans over half a century. He served as councilman for Romulus and was treasurer for four years. He also was a former Romulus Township Water and Sewer commissioner.

Lewkowicz was born and raised in Wyandotte and was employed at Rockwell International for 40 years. He was an active member of the United Automotive Workers.

7 die in Canton fire

(Editor's note: We apologize to our Canton readers for also running the following story on Page 1 in our newspaper.)

By RANDY FRANK
ANP Staff Writer

A fire ripped through a Canton Township home at 43465 Proctor Road, east of Sheldon Road, killing seven people Dec. 22.

Martin Dellocco, 38, died when he tried to rescue his children from the fire which started at about 11 p.m. Dead are his children: Bonnie, 12; Sara, 9; Katie, 8; twins Megan and Michael, 5; and Robert, 4.

Debbie Dellocco, 36, Martin's wife and their 6-year-old son escaped unharmed. Two other children, Jimmy and Kelly, were not home at the time of the fire.

Canton firefighters arrived at the scene at 11:15 p.m., five minutes after receiving a 911 call from Debbie Dellocco.

When firefighters arrived, they encountered a home engulfed in flames, according to Fire Capt. Art Winkel.

Apparently, a Christmas tree fell on the floor and a string of lights ignited the fire.

"There is quite a bit of damage inside the home," Winkel said. "It took about an hour to get the fire under control."

Winkel thinks some of the children were asleep when the fire started.

Neighbors said Martin and Debbie Dellocco were devoted to their children.

A master carpenter, Martin mainly worked for himself. He recently built an addition to his home.

The Rev. Ernest Pocari of St. Thomas 'A' Becket Catholic Church in Canton asked church members for a special second collection at each mass on Sunday to help the family pay for funeral services and other expenses.

Neighbors were also collecting clothing and food donations. Police said a fund was being established at a local bank.

The Canton Township Police Department is also setting up a fund for the family. Donations can be sent to Canton Township Dellocco Fund, 1150 S. Canton Center Road, Canton, Mich. 48187.

Area homeless shelter to open

By PATRICIA BROWN
ANP Staff Writer

Beginning March 1, the Family Center will be opened and ready to help those families in need of housing, according to Linda Makowski, director of the center.

Makowski made the announcement last week. She announced the center would open in March with the target date being March 1. The center is a new concept in housing for the homeless and it is being looked upon by other social service agencies across the country as a model for homeless families.

An announcement made by state officials last week indicated there would be a 9.2 percent cut in the state budget for the upcoming year. The cut could affect the center.

"We still aren't sure how much it will affect us, but there will be some cuts made," Benyo said.

The center is funded by community block grants from 32 Wayne County communities and from various federal and state grants.

Construction of the center, which is located in an existing building on the Eloise property at the corner of Henry Ruff and Michigan Avenue, was delayed. The initial target date to open was Oct. 1 or late fall.

The construction delay was due to officials and contractors putting together all of the contract language. Both sides wanted to make sure all of the details, such as completion dates and amounts of contracts were all accounted for accurately, according to Benyo.

But, before any services can be rendered, the center is still in need of some items which officials at the center are hoping to have donated from people or organizations in the Wayne County area.

Center officials are hoping to receive more donations for furniture and appliances before the doors open in March.

"We're looking for beds, games, television, microwaves, refrigerators, all types of furniture from bedroom furniture to couches and office furniture, lamps, end tables, typewriters and office equipment," said Joe Benyo, member of the Homeless Advisory Council and liaison for the Westland City Council.

"Anything that can be used because anything that we can have donated means that is one less thing that we have to buy."

Two computers were donated to the center by workers at Ford Motor Co.

"We don't need as many clothes now, but we really need radios, clocks and those types of things," he said. "Things that can be put in individual rooms."

Officials from the Wayne-Westland school district are trying to work with center officials to come up with a plan that will allow the school-aged children who will be living at the center to attend Wayne-Westland schools, according to Benyo.

One of the biggest items needed at the center is a form of transportation.

"We're hoping to get a van," he said.

SCHOOL NEWS

Senior year is demanding

By MICHELE JACOKES
ANP Special Writer

Senior year can be a very strenuous time in one's life. The year had hardly begun and I was already filling out the forms for my cap, gown and announcements. It hit me – and the other seniors – like a lightning bolt that, yes, this is our senior year. And, yes, colleges are knocking at our doors.

Since the senior year can be one hectic frenzy, the thought of going to college is the furthest thing from many minds. Some find that they want to attend college, some want to work and some want to do both.

For those that feel that college is not the best place for them, I have some thoughts.

In today's world, a college degree is much preferred over a mere high school diploma. Most of you have already figured that out, and are planning to attend college. I just ask the others think about and reflect upon that fact for a minute. College can further direct your path in life and actually bring out your potential. You can be trained and further taught by professionals to be the best you can be in your own selected field. And, if you are not exactly sure of what you want to do, college can help. Over the two or four years that you attend, you have a great opportunity to grow socially and mentally. Who said that college has to be all work?

Of course, working is also a great way to grow in those ways, and you may be working right now doing what you'll want to do for the rest of your life. That's great. But, why not go to college, specialize in that certain field and possibly gain even more knowledge about it. You will have a better chance of earning more money, and still do what you love to do?

If you are interested in attending college, but just don't think you can make it, look into a community college. These are schools that specialize in preparing you for a smooth transition from high school to a larger-scale college. Another positive aspect of community college is that they are near by, so you won't have to spend thousands of dollars for room and board.

There are also many fine universities in Michigan which offer an array of minors and majors. I'm sure you could find one that has a program that fits.

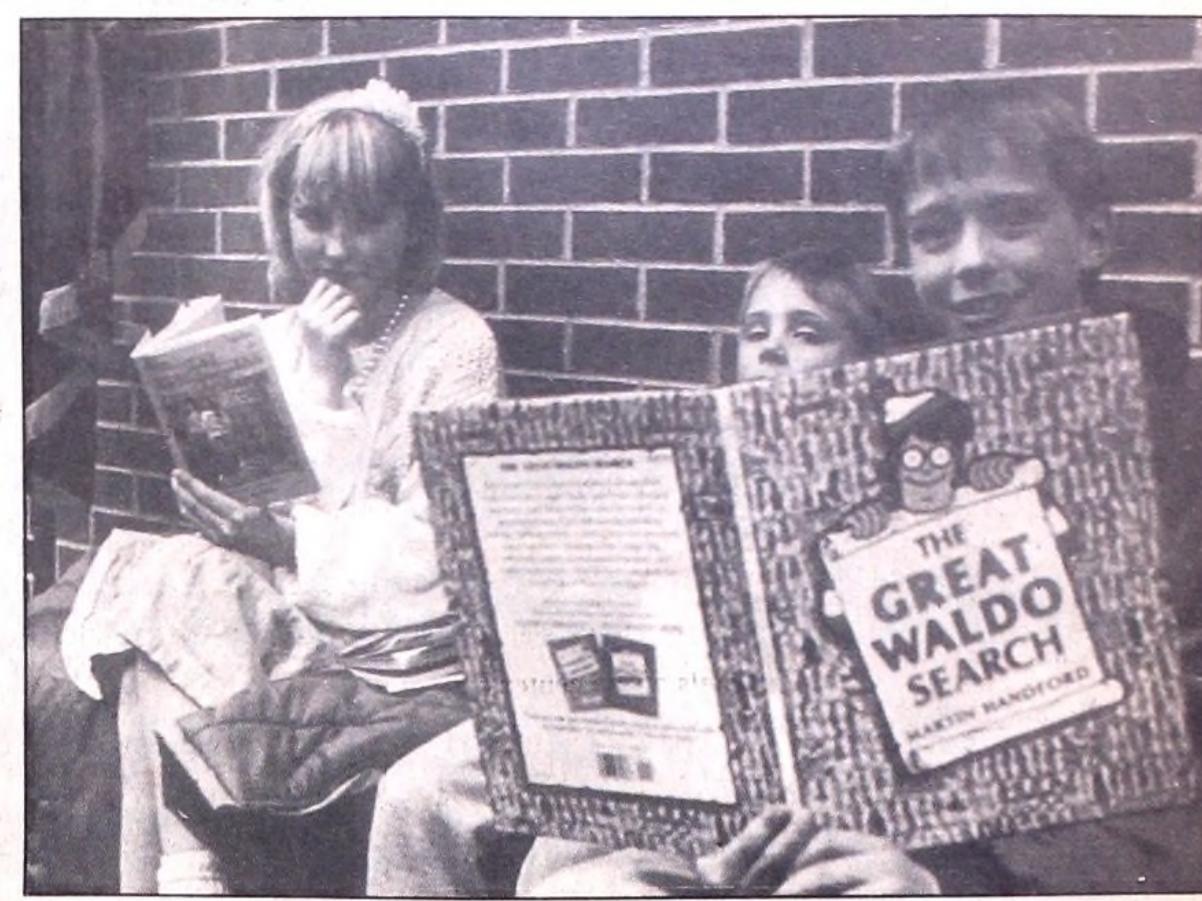

If you are a high school student and interested in learning more about colleges, take a walk down to the counselor's office and check out all of the available material. The counselor can be very helpful in providing you with the information that you need for furthering your education.

It is a perfect time for sending the college applications in. These usually require a fee for processing. You can obtain these from the counselor's office or through the college itself. Don't be scared of all the paper work required for these applications. It's worth it. Also, it is better to type your application. It will make an impression with the admitting department that you not only took your time to fill out the document completely, but with neatness.

I hope this information is of help to you. Senior year can be pretty tough. Just hang in there, because this is one precious moment out of your whole life. Why not enrich your life with a college education? Mail in your application today.

Reading pals

While they waited for their father, South Middle School seventh and eighth grade teacher, David Medley, Natalia Medley, 10, (left) and her brothers, Landon, 6, and Andrew, 8, all read from their favorite books. Natalia's choice was Dawn's Wicked Stepsister, Landon read Arthur's Nose and Andrew read The Great Waldo Search. ANP photo by Joan Dyer-Zinner

Success begins with students

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Staff Writer

A 3-year-old program geared toward motivating students to take an interest in education continues to be a success at Romulus Junior High School.

The program, "Success Starts With Me," was coordinated by an intervention team consisting of the principal, counselors, social workers and the school psychologist, according to Vern Logan, seventh grade counselor.

"Basically, the program was constructed in an effort to involve large numbers of students who were unsuccessful in school and unmotivated," Logan said. "The goals are to reduce student absenteeism, reduce referrals to the office and improve the academic performance for the student."

Recognition for improvements in attendance is separated into groups. Two groups will be recognized for the lowest group percentage of referrals per month.

"Each group receives a banner to display over its doorway during the next month which will be passed on to the following month's winning groups," Logan said. "Awards also include pizza parties, breakfast and movies."

Pictures of the winners will be placed in the lobby showcase.

"Academic wise, students who receive an improvement on their grade point average for the month will be rewarded," Logan said.

An assembly will be staged at the end of each marking period for the students who improve their grades as a motivation for them to continue to work hard. The students receive certificates at the assembly.

"We also work with the Business Partnerships for Education," Logan said. "The businesses we've worked with include Aztec Manufacturing, Apple Tree Rehabilitation Services, Court Yard by Marriott, Merriman Executive Inn, Edgewood Tool and Die, Romulus Marriott and Woodbridge Corp."

About 60 businesses in Romulus are involved with the partnership program which assists district schools to help further education for all students beyond the classroom.

Each business helps the students learn on-the-job skills to use in the future.

"We ask them to donate their time to help us out," Logan said. "They are good at sending speakers. We're working hand in hand with the businesses."

Opinion

Making our way to 2000 together

We stand on the brink of a new year moving ever so slightly to the long-celebrated year 2000.

But when the clock strikes midnight on that long-awaited day, will the year 2000 seem any different than the year 1999, 1998 or even 1991?

Will we still be a wasteful society polluting our world with the refuse of our lives? Will we still be killing and hurting one another selfishly? Will we be at war?

The year 2000 will only bring the treasures that we talk about if the years 1991 through 1999 are productive and positive ones.

Each year we must work together to improve the world in which we live.

We must hit hard and fight the drug problems which result in so many other societal ills.

We must change our lifestyles now to be less wasteful and to consider more carefully how to reuse and recycle the products we throw away today so readily.

We must learn to be kinder to one another in all respects. Our elected officials must consider the importance of additional governmental support in the areas of health care, day care and education.

It will be these basic things which will either skyrocket us to a more perfect world in the year 2000, or prevent us from climbing out of the hole in which we now sit.

The goals cannot be accomplished overnight. Can they be accomplished in the next nine years? That remains to be seen.

It must be a community, state, national and worldwide effort to take us to a higher plane of existence.

We must all work together to make this world a better, kinder place in which to live, work and raise a family.

Let's not wait until 1999 to begin. Let's make 1991 our starting point and resolve to make a difference.

Farewell to a friend

A dear friend of western Wayne County died last week and hundreds of area residents paid their tribute.

John Lewkowicz was a great man who offered most of his life to efforts of community service.

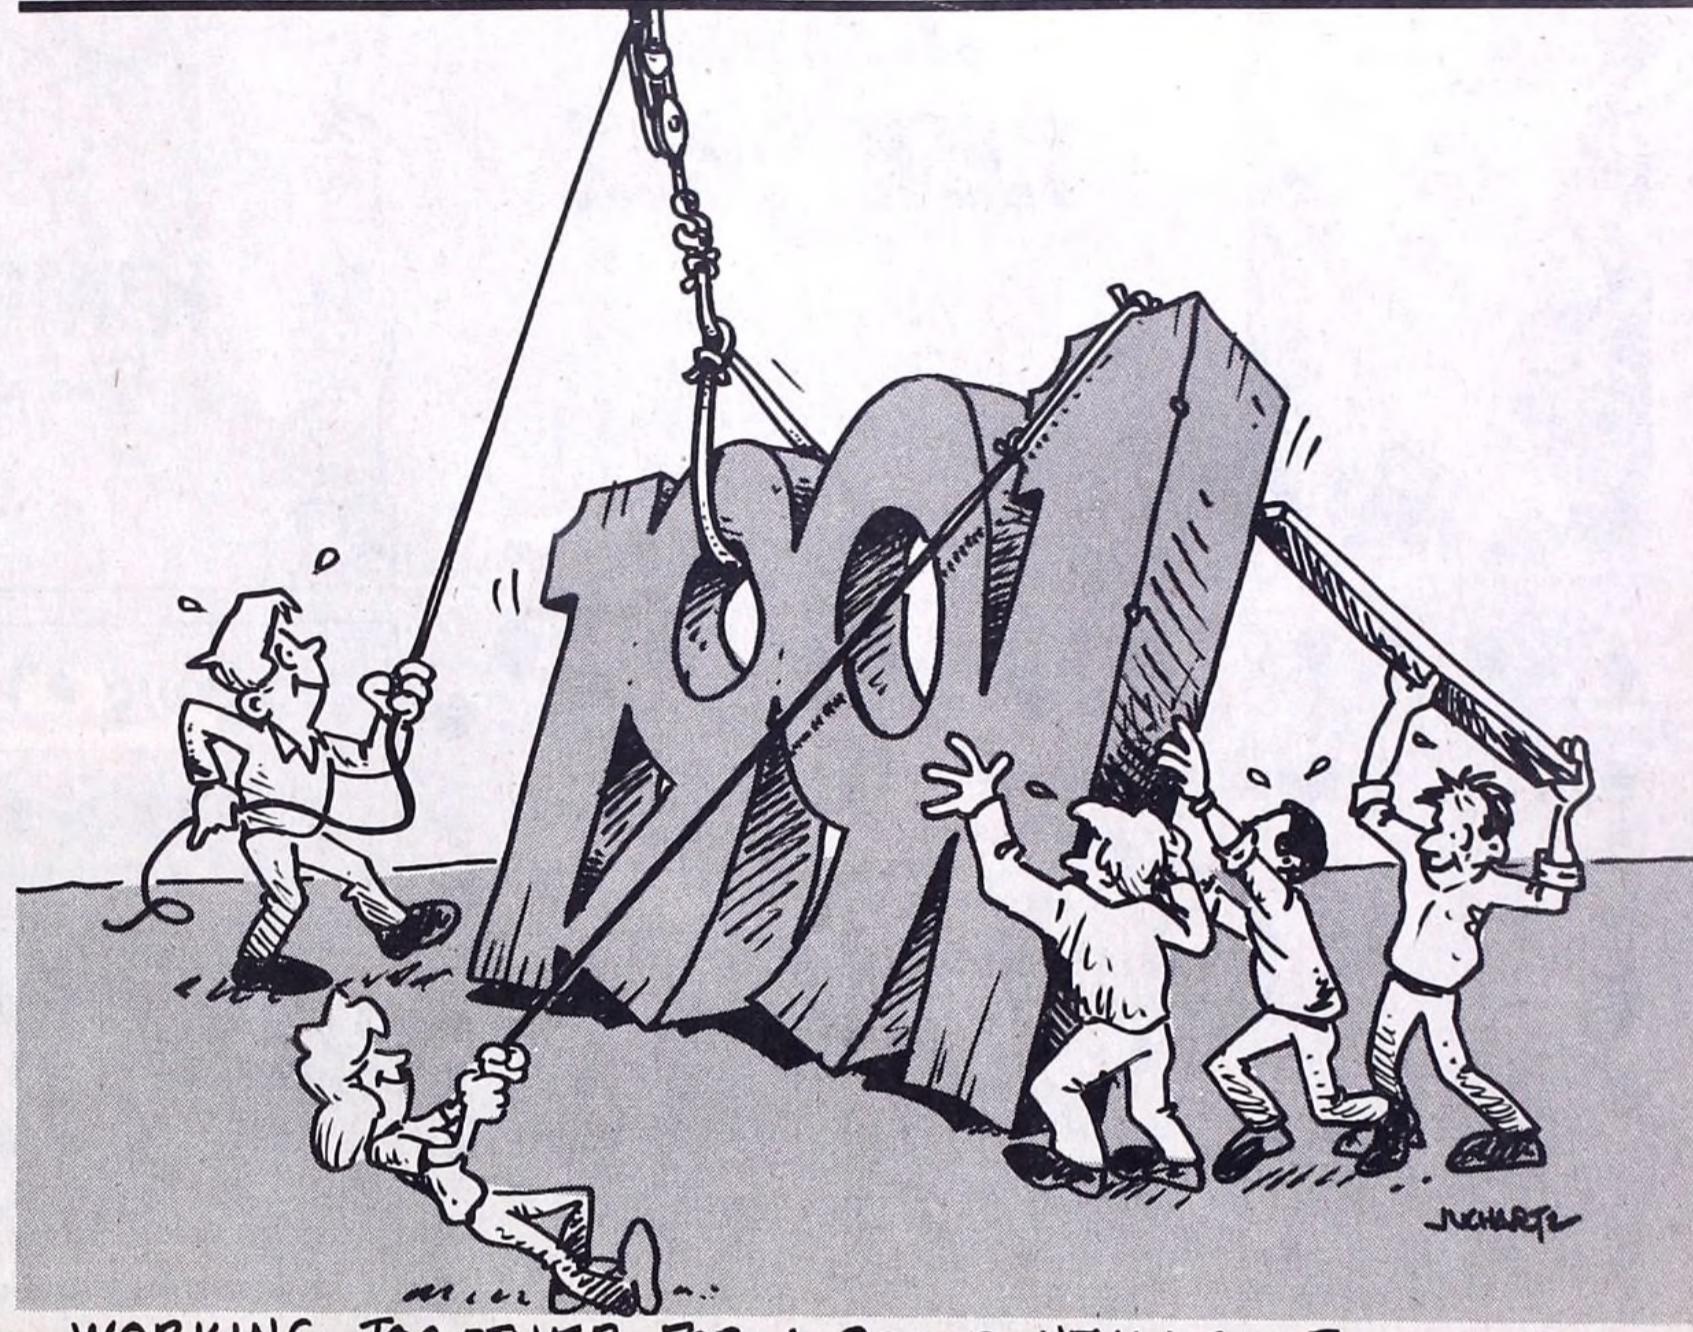

He died last week at the age of 73.

His dedication was proof to all that one man can make a difference in this world. He was a great family man, a caring citizen and a devoted public servant.

In bidding our last respects to Mr. Lewkowicz, we would like to thank him for all he has done, and thank his family for being by his side through the controversy and long hours that he spent in service.

His family helped to make him who he was, and they should be quite proud.

We wish his family well. He will be missed.

WORKING TOGETHER FOR A SOLID NEW YEAR...

Sister seeks local letters for service couple

I'm writing about my sister, Mary, who is deployed in the Middle East as part of Operation Desert Shield. She's not from this area, but I'm wondering whether she could be added to your list of servicemen anyway.

Mary and her husband, both Air Force officers, were sent to Saudi, Arabia Aug. 10. In typical military fashion, they are not even stationed together. Their 5-year-old daughter and 3-year-old son are staying with grandparents. They're too young to understand where their parents have gone or why. Knowing she won't even be home for Christmas has Mary understandably depressed. Anything area folks could do to cheer her up would sure be appreciated. Her address is: Capt. Mary Blackwell, 212-64-7295, USCENTAF Deployed, APO New York, 90852.

Streetscape setbacks expected

Streetscape has been a gigantic undertaking and with any great undertaking we have experienced setbacks. There always is with large operations that are bigger than cleaning the attic. The important thing here is that we all have been aiming for the same goal.

During this scenario on Main Street (in Belleville) retail merchants, business people, professional services and the shoppers have exercised great patience these past several weeks. It won't be long before we all will be loudly applauding the new look at Main Street. Keeping Main Street alive is what it is all about. The malls have their place and Main Street has its honored place. Why? Because it's where we live and down deep we all care about where we live and that our Main Street is alive and becoming more beautiful with a new face. City manager Bob Herron deserves a big, big pat on the back in negotiating with engineers, construction workers, merchants, business people, Detroit Edison, Wayne County and citizens. Bob, you are a big shot in the arm to this beautiful village called Belleville.

Good job with Sunday

You are to be commended for your Sunday edition. The magazine section is a real exciting and enjoyable section of the Westland Eagle.

The interview with Bill Bonds and our Sen. Bill Faust goes to show we do have men in high places who care for the health and welfare of their fellow men.

Since reading the Suburban Living magazine, I feel much more informed. Keep up the good work.

Thanks to all who helped

The Belleville Area Goodfellowes were able to make this Christmas brighter for over 300 local families again this year. This would not be possible without the help of the business community, the school system and all the volunteers who helped in compiling names, picking up donations and packing the boxes. My sincere thanks and heartfelt appreciation goes out to all of you who made this undertaking possible. May this coming year be a time of peace and prosperity for you and your families.

Library could be lost

It appears that unless the communities of Sumpter, Van Buren and Belleville don't get behind the effort to upgrade our local library, the government grant will go down the drain.

The amount of money needed to get this off the ground is minuscule, and dollar for dollar will benefit the area greater than any other millage increase.

Come on folks, Let's all get behind the library effort.

Traveling plans

Local athlete takes soccer on the road

By SEAN KELLY
ANP Staff Writer

Unless they have a pretty heady travel agent, most college students don't get to visit the places Steve Morell has in his college career.

Miami, Fla. Colorado. South Carolina. New York. These stops and many more were on the itinerary of Morell, a 1986 graduate of Plymouth Canton High School, as a member of the Penn State soccer team.

Not that Morell has spent most of his five years at University Park, Pa. sightseeing. Hardly.

"I didn't have too much free time," said Morell, a senior who will graduate in spring 1991 with a degree in architectural engineering. "On a normal day I'd get up in the morning, go to class, then practice from 2:30 til about 6 and then come back and study."

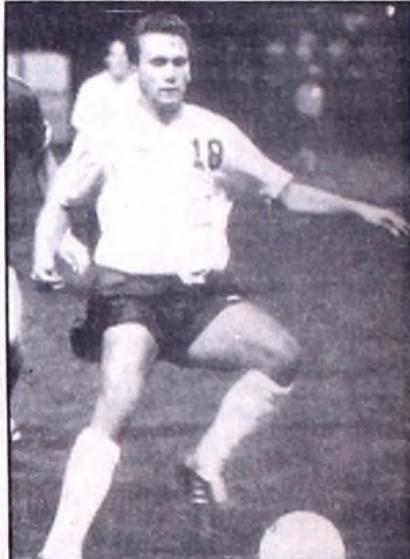

Morell's typical days changed dramatically in his sophomore year after an incident in a game against Lafayette.

"I remember that play well," said Penn State Coach Barry Gorman. "It was a corner kick with 30 seconds left to play in the game. The guy just came real hard right at Steve's leg and broke it."

To be exact, the tibia and fibula bones were broken, and Morell faced a couple of years of grueling rehabilitation.

"Instead of going to practice then I had to go through the rehabilitation to get my leg in shape again," Morell said. "And I also had some ankle problems before that, so it was really tough."

But the former Chiefs all-stater came back strong for his final year. This fall Morell booted in four goals as a midfielder/forward for the Nittany Lions. He was a big factor in their 11-8-2 record, second only to Rutgers in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

Morell came on strong in the classroom as well. His 3.2 grade-point average in architectural engineering is impressive considering Penn State is one of the top engineering schools in the country.

His performance both on and off the field has earned him accolades from many, including his soccer coach.

"I have the upmost respect for Steve," Gorman said. "Not only did he hang in there in a tough Division 1 sport, but he also came out of it with over a 3.0 in a very difficult field."

"And more importantly, he's a great kid. He's just one of those players who you love to see do well."

Salem defeats Livonia on mats

By SEAN KELLY
ANP Staff Writer

The Plymouth Salem wrestling team last week traveled to Livonia Stevenson and emerged a 45-27 victor.

Salem, led by 103-pounder John Moran and heavyweight Ken Coker, won eight of the 13 weight classes in improving its dual meet record to 2-0.

Here are the results in each weight class: Plymouth Salem (PS) Livonia Stevenson (LS)

054 103 – John Moran (PS) pinned Greg Kendall (LS) 1:30
• 112 – Scott Martin (PS) pinned Brian Tibbals (LS) 1:07

John Glenn grapplers 'too hot to handle'

By SEAN KELLY
ANP Staff Writer

In a cross-town battle, the John Glenn wrestlers proved to be a little too much for the Wayne grapplers last week.

Glenn was aided in its 43-27 victory by three Wayne voids, in the 112-pound, 119-pound and the 140-pound classes.

The Rockets Mike Reeves and Tony Pietrzyk destroyed their opponents winning by a combined score of 33-0.

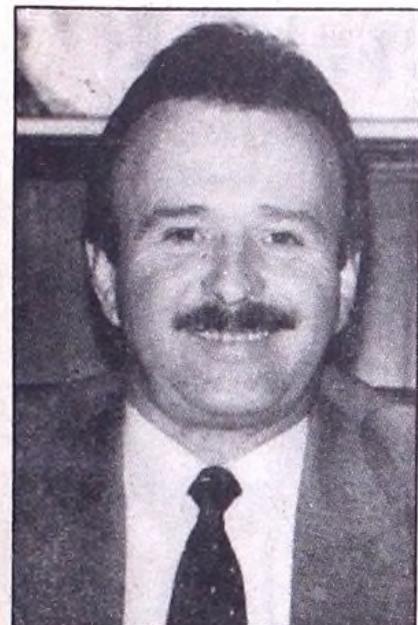

Here are the results for the meet held at John Glenn High School last week:

• 103 – Rich Simoneau (W) pinned Tom Pace (G) 1:23
• 112 – Jerry Samples (G) won

The best gift Santa ever brought me. . .

Wayne Deputy Director John Colligan:
"About three years ago my wife spent a lot of money on a pair of hockey skates. That gift extended my hockey playing for seven more years."

Joseph Davis Jr.

"I was a child of the Great Depression. And like most families at that time of mass unemployment, we also didn't have much. But I wanted a dump truck and I must have said it enough times and loud enough for my parents to hear me because I awoke on Christmas Day and, under the tree, Santa had left me the best dump truck in the world. Years later, I discovered that it wasn't Santa. Guess I better not say anymore or some parents will get angry at me."

Joan Bolek
executive director
Canton Township Chamber of Commerce

"When I was 10, my parents gave me a bicycle. I wasn't expecting to get a bike. It was a used blue bike, and I loved it. Even though there was snow on the ground, I rode it down the dirt road near my home."

S. Thomas White
city manager
Inkster

"It may not be classified as a toy, but it was the best thing I ever received. And I can't forget the year because I paid for it. In 1970, I went out and bought myself a red Buick convertible for Christmas. Haven't done anything as foolish since."

Thomas Brown
city council president
Westland

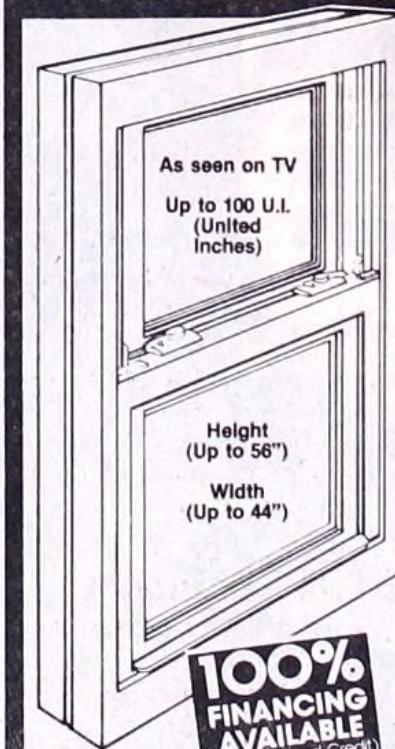

"The one I remember the most was when I was 7 years old. I got the first toy train that was actually powered by wood alcohol. You would put a few drops in and it had a little whistle, and the train would go."

THE QUIETEST CAR YOU CAN OWN IS NOW PRICED TO SILENCE THE COMPETITION.

1991 LINCOLN TOWN CAR

LINCOLN TOWN CAR
$399
AMONTH.

PLUS $1,300 CASH BACK

To all those things that helped make Lincoln Town Car one of America's truly outstanding luxury cars, for '91 we added a remarkable new V-8 engine that delivers 40 more horsepower while cutting engine noise considerably, helping make Town Car the quietest luxury car you can own. That alone has obviously helped us silence the competition, but so has this: A remarkable new lease payment of just $399 a month for 24 months on a new '91 Town Car. A lease payment that, in many cases, may be lower than a comparable lease last year on a '90 Town Car. What a terrific deal! Right now, you can lease a new '91 Town Car with its new V-8, standard driver's-side air bag Supplemental Restraint System, standard 4-wheel disc anti-lock brakes, plus loads of room, comfort and style. And most likely it will cost you less than a '90 Town Car lease. Plus right now you get an additional $1,300 cash back from Lincoln-Mercury when you lease. Now that's what a luxury car...and a luxury lease...should be.

CASH DOWN PAYMENT	$6,803.59
REFUNDABLE SECURITY DEPOSIT	$400.00
CASH BACK FROM LINCOLN-MERCURY	$1,300.00
TOTAL CASH DUE AT LEASE INCEPTION INCLUDES FIRST MONTH'S LEASE PAYMENT	$7,602.59
TOTAL AMOUNT OF PAYMENTS	$9,576.00
24 MONTHLY LEASE PAYMENTS AT ²	$399.00

1991 LINCOLN
MARK VII1991 LINCOLN
CONTINENTAL

$1,300 CASH BACK

With its computerized steering and suspension systems, standard 4-wheel disc anti-lock brakes, and standard driver's-side air bag Supplemental Restraint System, Lincoln Continental more than retains the qualities that have made it one of the world's most advanced luxury cars. Plus for 1991, Continental's 3.8-liter V-6 engine has been refined for efficient combustion that helps boost horsepower 10%. And to boost your prospects of driving a Continental right now, your Lincoln-Mercury dealer is offering special lease terms and an additional $1,300 cash back when you lease a Continental.

See your dealer today for a test drive.

$1,300 CASH BACK

From its dramatic, contoured shape, to the power, sophistication and control offered by its High-Output V-8 engine, 4-wheel disc anti-lock brakes and electronic air suspension, Mark VII dramatically defines itself as a luxury automobile created to satisfy those who set the most demanding standards of all—drivers. And right now, to help more of those drivers become Mark VII owners, your Lincoln-Mercury dealer is offering special lease terms on Mark VII plus $1,300 cash back from Lincoln-Mercury when you lease. See your dealer today for a test drive.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAM INFORMATION: Customer Cash Back directly from Lincoln-Mercury on 1991 models with a 24-month Ford Credit Red Carpet lease; $1,300 on Town Car, Continental and Mark VII. Customer Cash Back can be applied toward payment, refundable security deposit and first month's lease payment or you may keep the cash. For cash back and special lease terms you must take new vehicle delivery from dealer stock by 2/28/91. Total cash due at lease inception includes a refundable security deposit, cash down payment and first month's lease payment. Lease payment is based on Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price of $30,038 on Town Car. Lease payment includes destination charges but excludes title, taxes and license fee and is based on a 24-month closed-end Red Carpet Lease from Ford Credit. Lessee may have the option to purchase the car at lease end at a price to be negotiated with the dealer at lease inception. However, lessee has no obligation to purchase the car at lease end. Lessee is responsible for excess wear and tear. 30,000 miles is the total mileage allowed with an $11 per mile charge over 30,000. Lease subject to credit approval and insurability as determined by Ford Credit. See your Lincoln-Mercury dealer for details and his price and terms.
